

Subject Line: APPROVAL REQUEST - Austin API Summit

Dear (NAME),

I would like to request your approval to attend the upcoming Austin API Summit, featuring 40+ speakers covering API topics on strategy, API design, API management, and more. This event will be held Tuesday March 12 - Wednesday March 13 in Austin, TX.

Practitioners and technical leaders from industry-leading companies including CapitalOne, Axiomatics, 42Crunch, Google, and AWS will lead over 50 workshops, keynotes and sessions – discussing the many facets of developing and sustaining a thriving API-first organization.

I'd like to attend the Austin API Summit to further my education in API development and management best practices through networking and attending sessions on strengthening our API best practices in the following areas:

- Foundations for constructing API-first platforms
- Technology trends in the design of APIs, including REST, GraphQL, gRPC, EDA, and more
- Case studies on API strategies being adopted across industries
- OAuth, OpenID Connect, and innovative techniques and tips for identity management
- OpenAPI, AsyncAPI, and other API definitions for streamlining development and usability
- Artificial intelligence and other emerging trends in the API space
- Essential developer resources such as sandboxes, SDKs, code samples, and tutorials to onboard users

The hosts of the Austin API Summit are currently offering an early bird registration discount through January 19th and limited discount hotel rates to help reduce costs,

Please let me know if I can commit to attending this valuable event. Thank you for your consideration.
